

Children are citizens

Listen to us. Involve us. Help us to help you.

SOUTH AFRICAN ChildGauge 2010/2011

Posters created by children

About the posters

These posters were designed by a group of 18 children from five organisations: the Children's Resource Centre, Disabled Children's Action Group, Equal Education, Resources Aimed at the Prevention of Child Abuse and Neglect, and Soul Buddyz. The children participated in a series of workshops facilitated by the Children's Rights Centre, the Children's Institute, Frank Joubert Art Centre, Designs4Development and UNICEF South Africa.

With thanks to the children: Chelsea Benting, Martinique Carelse, Hansin Demas, Lwando Dinana, Nontsikelelo Dilulani, Siyanda Dosi, Austin Felix, Nicole Galant, Desire Hamer, Florins Hendricks, Allistair Heyns, Asenathi Kanayo, Curwin Kennell, Busiswa Mabija, Phathiswa Shushwana, Daniel Stemmet, Aeysha Witbooi and Someleze Yayase.

About the South African Child Gauge

The South African Child Gauge is published by the Children's Institute, University of the Cape Town (UCT). This annual publication reports on the situation of the country's children to highlight the challenges related to the promotion and protection of children's rights. The theme of the 2011 issue is Children as citizens: Participation in social dialogue.

About the Children's Institute, UCT

The Children's Institute is a policy research institute that aims to contribute to policies, laws and interventions that promote equality and realise the rights and improve the conditions of all children in South Africa, through research, advocacy, education and technical support. For more information on the Institute, see www.ci.org.za or phone +27 +21 689 5404 or email: info@ci.org.za.

